THE HISTORIC PANAMA CANAL

It's one of seafaring's great rites of passage, and high on every traveler's list — transiting the mighty locks of the historic Panama Canal. Since the SS Ancon became the first ship to make the transit on August 15, 1914, over a million ships have passed through the canal, averaging between 13,000 and 14,000 vessels a year.

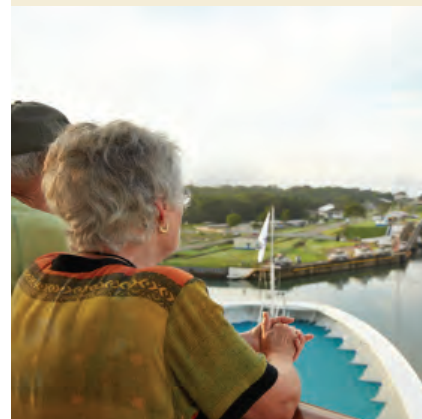

The idea for a canal connecting the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans and saving sailors nearly 8,000 miles between New York and San Francisco, dates to the early 16th century, when King Charles V of Spain first proposed the idea. It was discussed again during the presidency of Thomas Jefferson, and after a failed late-19th-century French attempt, the Americans, under Theodore Roosevelt, took over in 1904. Construction of a working canal through 51 miles of mountain and jungle was completed a decade later, and stands today as one of the world's greatest engineering feats.

With Princess, you can join this rich tradition and choose from three different ways to experience this legendary marvel — a partial transit roundtrip from Ft. Lauderdale or Los Angeles, a full transit between Ft. Lauderdale and either Los Angeles or Vancouver, B.C., or our signature 2-day Experience, featuring a full transit between Ft. Lauderdale and Los Angeles and two days in the Canal Zone.

Fascinating Canal Facts:

- Spanish explorer Vasco Núñez de Balboa discovered the narrow Isthmus of Panama in 1513.
- America originally planned a canal through Nicaragua.
- The first Princess cruise ship to pass through the Panama Canal was Princess Italia® in 1967.
- The Canal transports four percent of the world's trade.
- 52 million gallons of fresh water are utilized each time a ship makes a full transit.
- The Canal is being expanded to handle today's mega container ships and cruise ships.

SENSATIONAL SOUTH AMERICA

South of the Equator, on one of the world's most exotic and mysterious continents, lie attractions beyond imagination. Welcome to South America, where the landscapes are dramatic and the people passionate. You'll discover unique cultures in electrifying destinations like sophisticated Buenos Aires and colorful Rio de Janeiro. And prepare to be dazzled by stunning scenery, from the otherworldly seascapes of Cape Horn and the Chilean Fjords to the soaring peaks of the Andes.

The Romance of Rio

Mention Rio de Janeiro, and images of samba dancing, sun-kissed beaches and Carnival parades come to mind. Unlike many destinations, passionate Rio actually lives up to its promise. In this sprawling city of five million, you will find the cultural soul of Brazil. Exploring the metropolis, you might find yourself sunbathing on famous Copacabana Beach one moment, climbing iconic Sugarloaf Mountain the next, and sipping caipirinhas while listening to live music in a café after that.

City in the Clouds

High in the Andes lies one of the world's greatest attractions, the "Lost City of the Incas" — Machu Picchu. A UNESCO World Heritage Site, this timeless marvel dates to the 15th century, possibly built as an estate for the Incan emperor, and sits at nearly 8,000 feet above sea level. After a century, the citadel was mysteriously abandoned at about the time of the Spanish conquest. Today it remains one of the world's most popular bucket list destinations.

Balconies may have either solid steel or glass railings. Upper berth and bed ladder capacities are 250 lbs. Staterooms that can accommodate rollaways have two lower berths and one upper berth, and the staterooms can accommodate a fourth berth as a rollaway bed upon request at time of reservation.
