YOUR WORLD, YOUR WAY

Every guest on a World Cruise will have a favorite region — for some, it's the unspoiled beaches and traditional cultures of the isles of the South Pacific, while for others it may be the bustling cities and exciting experiences of Asia or Europe. On this monumental voyage, there are highlights for everyone — including maiden calls for Pacific Princess in Acajutla (El Salvador), Bodrum (Turkey), Yap (Micronesia), Hvar (Croatia) and Sibenik (Croatia).

If you are unable to join Pacific Princess® for the entire World Cruise but would like to sail in one or more of these sensational regions, you can choose a segment voyage ranging from 17 to 22 days. Combine two or more segments and see even more! See page 11 for details.

Asia

The Far East is a world of colorful landscapes and dramatic sights. In Southeast Asia, you'll get to know Taiwanese culture, visit exciting Singapore and Micronesia. An overnight in Hong Kong gives you time to truly experience this incredible Chinese metropolis.

Mumbai, India

Australia & New Zealand

New discoveries await Down Under, where you will experience an array of wonderful ports. You'll arrive first in New Zealand, where friendly Auckland and the beautiful Bay of Islands welcome you. In Australia, you'll sail into Sydney Harbour and also call in Cairns and Darwin.

Central America & Mexico

The small size of Pacific Princess gives you a chance to visit places a large ship could not — like the quaint tropical port of San Juan del Sur in Nicaragua, and El Salvador's Acajutla, surrounded by mountain and jungle. You'll also visit La Paz on Mexico's Sea of Cortez.

Europe

Myriad wonderful destinations await in Europe — the well-preserved ruins in Bodrum, Turkey; the Greek town of Chania on the isle of Crete; quaint Bari on Italy's Adriatic coast; the lovely Croatian town of Hvar; fascinating Gibraltar and Portugal's stunning Algarve Coast; and the crown jewel of the Adriatic, romantic Venice, where an overnight stay gives you opportunity to explore the city and its fabled canals by night.

India

What destination on earth could be more enticing than India? Cochin, on the Kerala Coast, has been a major trading center since before the Roman Empire, while Mumbai bridges past and present with stately stone palaces and modern skyscrapers. An optional overland tour takes you to India's capital, Delhi, and on to the legendary symbol of enduring love, the white marble Taj Mahal.

Southern Seas

The South Pacific is everything you would expect — palm trees swaying in trade winds, gorgeous beaches and crystal blue waters. On the World Cruise, you'll be visiting bustling Honolulu in the Hawaiian Islands before sailing further south to lush isles and traditional cultures in places like Tonga and Samoa.

The Caribbean

After a stop in friendly Bermuda, you're bound for the Caribbean. Here you will visit the balmy isle of Aruba, known for its white sand beaches and Dutch influences. You'll also call in the Colombian port of Santa Marta, the oldest city in Colombia, with lovely beaches and Spanish colonial architecture.

The Middle East

Three of the Middle East's greatest attractions are a highlight of this segment of your itinerary. First is incredible Dubai, a mind-boggling blend of ultra-modern architecture and Arabian tradition. In Jordan, you'll have the rare opportunity to visit the "Lost City" of Petra, carved from red desert sandstone. Finally, you'll sail through the Red Sea and pass through Egypt's Suez Canal en route to the Mediterranean.

The Panama Canal

The construction of a working canal through 51 miles of mountain and jungle was completed in 1914, and stands today as one of the world's greatest engineering feats. Between 13,000 and 14,000 ships make the 8- to 10-hour transit each year. With Pacific Princess, you'll have a chance to experience a full transit from Atlantic to Pacific oceans.

4 What's your budget?

Your cruise fare is determined by several factors — destination and length, time of year, stateroom choice and availability. Stateroom fares are quoted per person and based on double occupancy — with elegant and casual dining options, onboard entertainment like production shows, musicians and comedians, a Las Vegas-style casino and much more included with your fare.

Balcony staterooms give you added space and your own place to relax outside on fine patio furniture and enjoy the unforgettable views. Suites and mini-suites offer even more square footage and premiums such as a sofa bed and upgraded amenities, including a luxury mattress and pillows. An oceanview double includes a large picture window, providing added ambience and memorable views, and our most affordable option is the interior stateroom, which has fine amenities and no windows. To learn more, visit princess.com/staterooms.

Traveling with family or a group of friends can be a wonderful way to get away from it all. Book early for the best selection of staterooms.
